Parent/Carer Responsibility

All parents/carers must stay on site during the session. They must always have their phones on and be contactable during the session. We must always have a contact number to reach you and emergency contact number in case we can not get hold of you.

If your child is 8 years or under, requires one to one, or the type of session requires, then parents/carers must stay in the session with their child/young person.

Please ensure that you arrive on time the session at the designated meeting point and arrive promptly for collection.
